

Seiko SBDC005

If collecting the best watches is your passion, the Seiko SBDC's new Sumo model can be the ideal one for you to try out. A suited wristwatch for all young and modern people who love to create an individual style of their own, the Seiko SBDC sumo is the modern diva watch that must make place among your prized possession.

Designed elegantly with fine finish and bezel action, the Sumo comes with excellent features such as mixing vectored lines, brushed and polished surfaces and even lug holes to name a few. The orange color of the dial makes it stand out amidst the crowd easily, especially when it is placed on a black rubber strap.

Seiko SBDC new C005 Sumo model emerges as a winner among the lot as a diver's best companion that is provided with a simple wetsuit extension which is hidden under the clasp.

Features of Seiko SBDC005 Sumo

- 44x13.3mm with 200m WR
- Seiko SBDC005 Sumo has an attractive orange dial
- Allows Seiko Prospex Movement,
- Cal.Automatic 6R15 23 Jewels,
- Provided with hack function & hand winding,
- It is provided with a crystal hardlex with screw down crown,
- The Sumo supports power reserve Anti magnetic feature for 50 hours
- The watch is manufactured for Japan Domestic Market

Pros

The casing of the watch is beautifully done with luming and a classy legible look that looks good in both light and dark. Moreover, the price of the Seiko Sumo watch is within budget reach of consumers that makes it a winner's bid.

Cons

Like all devices, Seiko Sumo also has its share of drawbacks. Slight rough finish, rubber strap and it's not a high beat movement adds to the disadvantages of the watch.